Volume XI

Foreword

In this, the eleventh volume of The Froslin, we, the Senior Class of 1939, have endeavored to reflect on its pages the spirit of St. Wendelin High as we are preparing for our life's voyage. We have chosen as our theme—A SHIP—and fondly hope that, whether or not our course enjoys fair weather and good sailing, we will be better equipped as a result of the character training and spiritual guidance we have received at St. Wendelin, to weather the storm.

It is the sincere desire of the Class of '39 that this book will serve as a record and a memorial of our four happy years. To this end we present "THE 1939 FROSLIN."

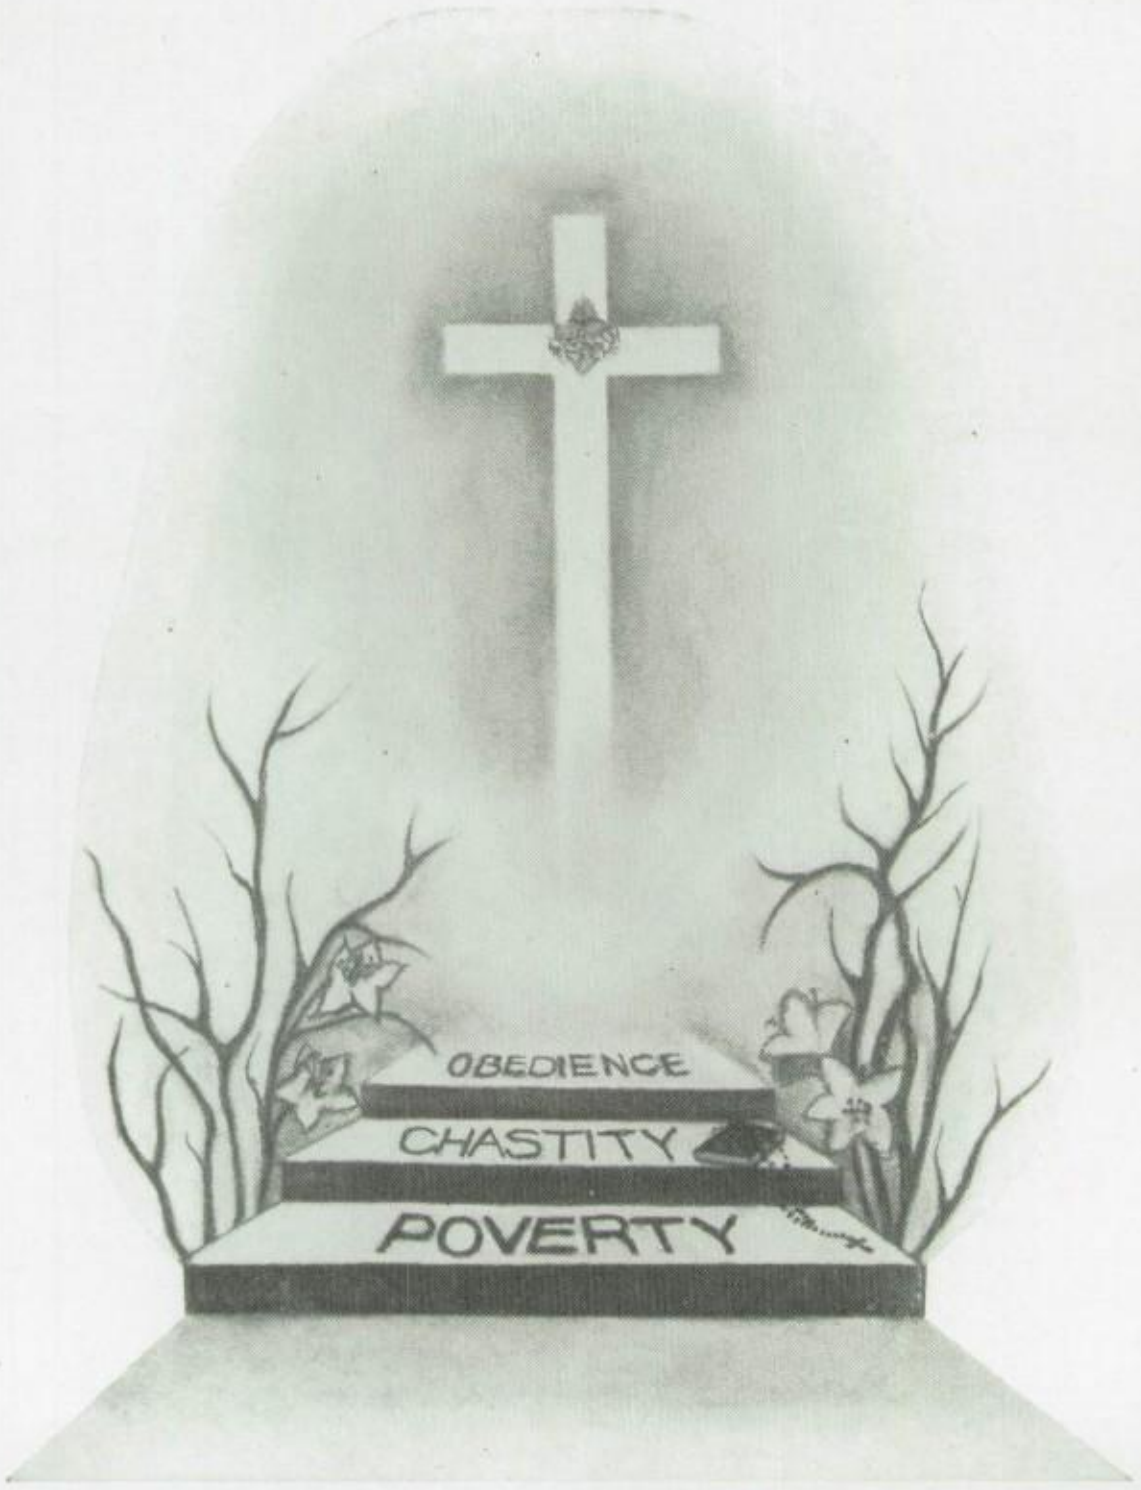
Dedication



In appreciation and recognition of the glorious achievements and edifying example, which the Sisters of Notre Dame have given, in the past fifty years, to the youth of St. Wendelin School, both elementary and high school, we, the members of the Class of 1939, in commemoration of the Golden Jubilee, do gratefully dedicate this, the eleventh volume of THE FROSLIN.

May their noble ideals ever inspire us to traverse the pathway of life that leads to eternal happiness!

Golden Jubilee Tribute

As glittering stars that brighten the night,
For fifty years you've shone the light,
Teaching to cherish our firm Christian truths,
Aiding us reap such bountiful fruits.

You've taught us how our joys to share,
With cheerful hearts our woes to bear.
The road of life, you've made so clear,
This cruel, cold world—we do not fear.

Our lips, so mute, will ne'er express
The deep emotions in our breasts;
Unselfish in your love today
To Christ, Our King, you've paved the way.

Our prayers will ever follow you
At home or e'en in distant lands,
Where'er you go, where'er you be
God bless the work of your loving hands.

And when the Master calls you Home
And you among the Saints shall roam,
You'll know your work was ne'er in vain
For in Christ's bosom it will reign.

Administration

His Holiness, Pope Pius X1

Though in prayers we may speak to Christ
for his soul

We know his ship's anchored in life's grandest goal!

His Holiness, Pope Pius X11

He, now, pilots Christ's ship on the sea
of life,

His ardent plea for PEACE will end world strife.

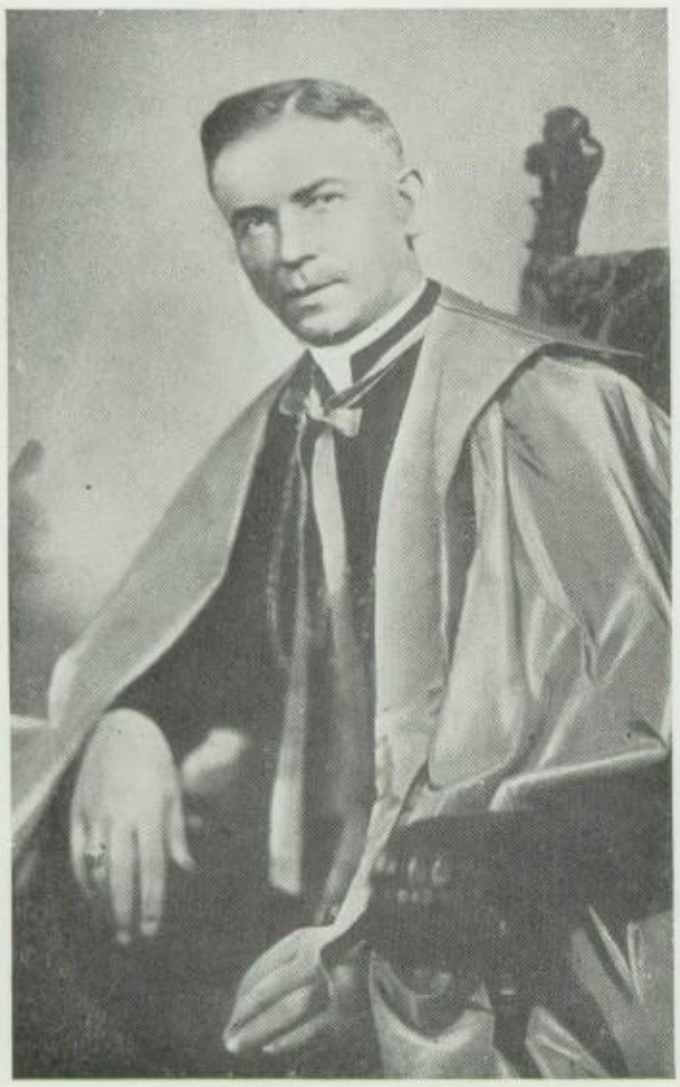
Most Reverend Karl J. Alter, D.D.

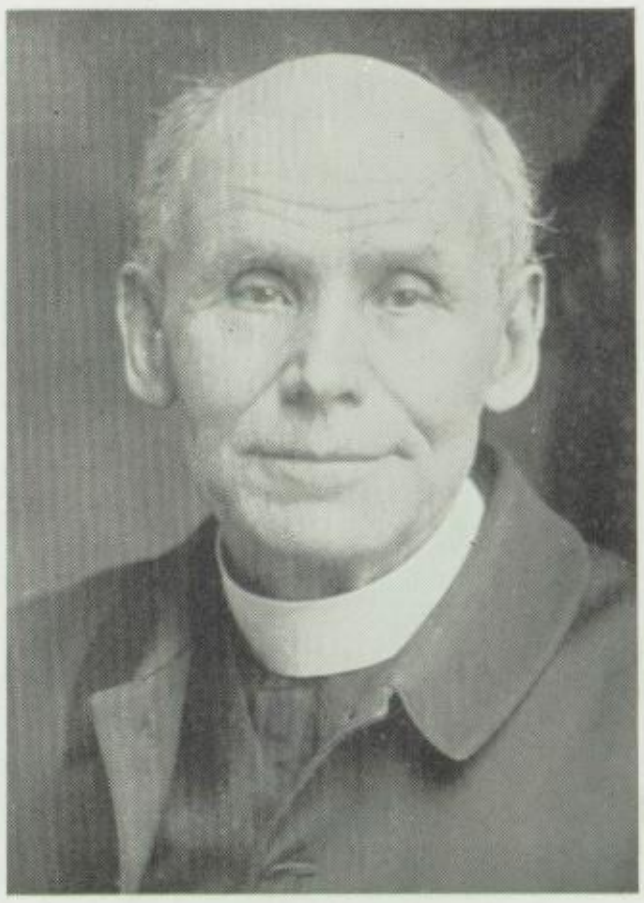


Bishop Alter, the vice admiral of our ship, has been a source of inspiration to every student throughout the entire Toledo Diocese, as a promoter of education and learning.

May he continue to pilot his ship into the Divine harbor!

Reverend Ambrose A. Weber, Pastor

Father Weber—that is the name which is familiar and loved by every member of St. Wendelin parish from the tiny tots, whom he lovingly guides, to its oldest members. It is synonymous to St. Wendelin High School students with piety, goodness, saintliness and inspiration. Te Salutamus!



Reverend Raymond J. Osterhage, Principal

Father Osterhage

For three years, Father Osterhage, you have guided the destinies of St. Wendelin High. During that brief span of time your principles have wielded a permanent guiding influence upon our lives, never to be forgotten. It is in recognition of your outstanding and marvelous example as our principal, teacher, and friend that we pay you tribute in this, our yearbook. May God bless you for your interest in our welfare!

Reverend Charles A. Ruess

As this school year comes to a close, we take this opportunity to express our gratitude to Father Ruess for his kind interest in St. Wendelin High and its students. And as we embark upon the sea of life we wish to thank him sincerely for the many favors he has granted the class of 1939. Our wish for you, Father, is that you may spend many more years in St. Wendelin Parish and that your every undertaking may be blessed with success.

Mrs. Floyd Kinnaman

Two years ago Mrs. Floyd J. Kinnaman joined the faculty of St. Wendelin High School as music instructress. In that brief space of time she has done a marvelous work in bringing finer music to the students and teaching them a keener appreciation of it. Under her capable direction a Glee Club has been organized, and music has become an important subject in the school curriculum.

To you, Mrs. Kinnaman, for your untiring patience and unselfishness, we, the graduates of 1939, express our sincerest thanks and appreciation.

Nelle Kinnaman

Mrs. Clarence Kuhn

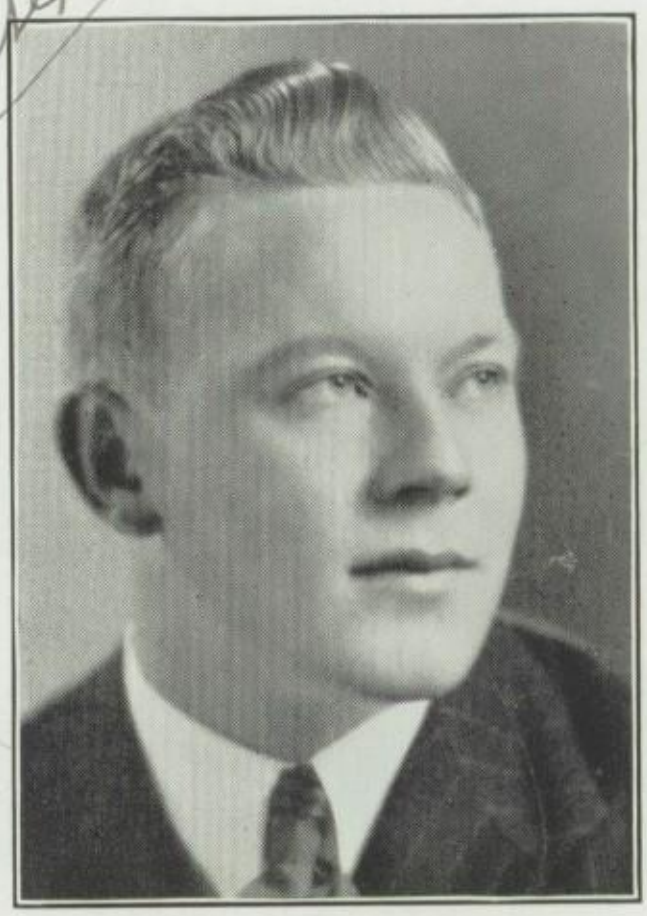
Evelyn E. Kuhn

Mrs. Clarence Kuhn, an alumna of St. Wendelin High and a graduate of Mary Manse College, took over the duties of secretary at St. Wendelin High in September, 1938. She has proven herself very successful in this work.

It is with deepest gratitude that we express sincere thanks to you, Mrs. Kuhn, in appreciation for your whole-hearted services.

A. Tscherne

Mr. Adolph Tscherne



Although he has spent but one year as a faculty member of St. Wendelin High School, Mr. Adolph Tscherne will be remembered by every student as a fine coach, teacher, and friend.

He will leave St. Wendelin High with the end of this school term to assume duties at Central Catholic High School, Toledo, as assistant coach. Though we regret the loss of his excellent services, the entire student body congratulates him on his advancement and wish him unlimited success.

Tribute to Teachers

As Commencement day approaches and as we, the graduating class of 1939, cast a retrospective glance over our school years, we begin to realize and appreciate the unceasing and patient labor exerted by the teachers of St. Wendelin High School in our behalf. Through the years they have seemed like guardian angels hovering over us constantly, protecting us from the many pitfalls which beset life's way.

There are no words adequate to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to them for their unselfish sacrifice of time and self for our spiritual and temporal betterment but we shall attempt in some small way to repay our debt to them by always living the principles that have been instilled into our hearts.

To Father Osterhage, who has labored so tirelessly during the past three years for the salvation of our souls and the development of our minds and bodies, we owe an immeasurable debt of gratitude.

To Father Ruess, who, by word and example, has furnished a model of Christian goodness, we extend sincerest thanks.

To the good sisters, Sister Mary Lillian, Sister Mary Dalene, Sister Mary Charlotte, and Sister Mary Francella, who were ever near and always eager to guide us along the way that leads to heaven, we wish to pay tribute.

Finally, but in no wise least, our sincerest gratitude is extended to the lay faculty members, Mr. Adolph Tscherne, Mrs. Floyd Kinnaman, and Mrs. Clarence Kuhn, for their useful services.

To all who have been instrumental in our progress—spiritually, intellectually, and materially we extend our heartfelt appreciation.

Our Beloved Alma Mater

Through thy door four years we've gone
With joy and pride deep in our heart
And since the time to leave hath dawned,
Reluctantly from thee we part.
But, though we leave, we'll e'er remain
Thy loyal sons and daughters true.
In years to come—fore'er thou'lt reign
In all we say—in all we do.

Mary, Star of the Sea

When wild waves lash against my bark,
O Star of the Sea
Remember me!
And storm-winds howl and night is dark,
O Star of the Sea
Remember me!
My bark is frail and I am weak,
O Star of the Sea
Come, succor me!
My tear-sprayed eyes a beacon seek,
O Star of the Sea
Shine down on me!
Ah! surging sin swept o'er my prow,
O Star of the Sea
Forgetting thee!
But I am crushed and helpless now,—
O Star of the Sea
I look to thee!
'Tis hard to grapple with each wave,
O Star of the Sea
For such as me!
Lest passion's grasp again enslave,
O Star of the Sea
Stand guard o'er me!
And when life's twilight gathers fast,
O Star of the Sea
Then think of me!
That I might reach the port at last,
O Star of the Sea
Remember me!
